When our great grandfather immigrated to New York in 1903, his family lived in a brownstone. This wine honours our Italian-American ancestors who often quarried, built and lived in brownstones.